

Bringing Balance to your Life with Tesla's Light Chamber

Would you like to bring your life into Balance?

One of the most important things in life is that all human beings need balance. When in balance life is a lot easier to manage. Your emotions are a lot calmer and you get along with people without too much stress.

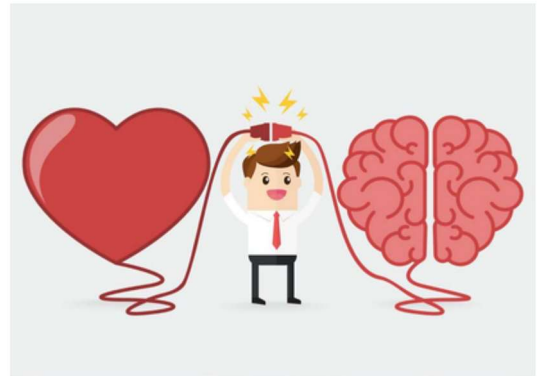

In fact, there are certain areas of your life where balance may be missing and it can generate a disharmony of patterns that will continue to appear in your life that may not always be in your best interest. Below you will read of a new way to help balance your life.

What is Heart intelligence ?

It's the flow of intuitive awareness with an understanding of your inner guidance. You will experience this in the Tesla's Light Chamber.

Your mind will be in coherent alignment with your heart and you will have organisation at a cellular level.

We must always be conscious of the fact that no two people have the same energy signatures and thus the outcome is different for each person.

Many people experience a deep sense of peace whilst being in the Tesla's Light Chamber, this is due to the way the structure of the Tesla's Plates are arranged within the Tesla's Light Chamber so that they interact directly with you.

There is a strong focus on the person sitting in the chair of the Tesla's Light Chamber, with a total of 92 Tesla's Plates directly pointed at them and another 6 as balancers. The stronger field that is created balances the energies to all the ten bio-energetical levels of the person. to

Tesla's Light Chamber is a lovely place to meditate

This device is truly amazing. "It's gentle and yet forceful" is the only description we have for Tesla's Light Chamber. Once you have the heart-mind coherence the level of connectedness to yourself and others is amazing.

Among the many benefits of personal coherence are;

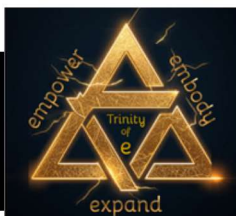

Tesla's Light Chamber

Create a state of heart-mind coherence

When sitting in the Tesla's Light Chamber you may feel heart and mind are connected, you are in a coherent state. Your thoughts and emotions become balanced and you may experience inner harmony, we call it heart intelligence..

Move Energy Patterns That No Longer Serves You

increased composure, more energy, clear thinking, enhanced immune-system. From a physics perspective, when we are in a coherent state, virtually no energy is wasted because there is synchronisation between the heart and mind.

One of the simplest and quickest paths to personal heart coherence is through the 'Tesla's Light Chamber'.

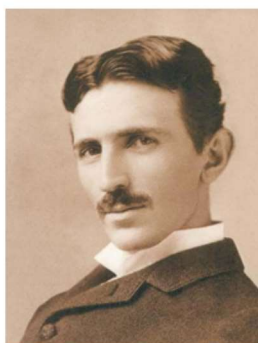

The energy of Tesla's HeartSender's is on a mini scale to that of the Tesla's Light Chamber and is ideal for people who want to enjoy the energy on a daily basis. It is also very transportable.

For more in-depth understanding of how the heart and brain communicate there are many scientific research publications by HeartMath.

It has long been a dream of both Tesla's and Christopher Lewin, to have people around the world in heart-focused intention to help facilitate the shift in global consciousness from instability and discord to balance cooperation and enduring global peace.

The HeartMath Institute in the US has been studying heart-mind coherence for over 20 years and researching physiological coherence with harmonious connectedness. We now have the Tesla's Light Chamber and the Tesla's HeartSender to experience their research.

Nikola Tesla (1856 – 1943)

Nikola Tesla who is often called one of history's most important inventors discovered AC electricity. He understood the principles of an electric universe that depended on balance to function properly. He also knew that for you to live a happy, healthy life you needed to live a balanced life. Whereby the continuous electrical currents passing through you, both operating in positive and negative currents need to be balanced.

Body Electrics

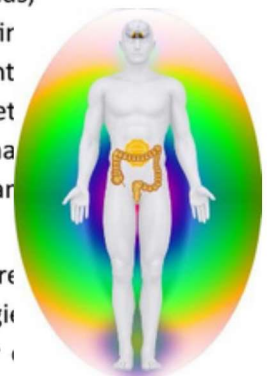

A practical example of this within the body is the hypothalamus gland that is found in the middle of your head controls the main positive charge of your body. The large intestine in your stomach controls the main negative charge in your body, then the solar plexus found between the hypothalamus and the large intestine regulates the balance between these two parts of the body.

With this understanding in mind we can start to understand the reasoning behind Tesla's technology and how it can enhance the benefits of balance for us as human beings.

Today these three areas, hypothalamus, large intestine and solar plexus are constant under attack by electromagnetic pollution, emotional trauma, poisons, chemicals, synthetics and not to forget our diet.

Nikola Tesla had foresight in this and was inventing different technologies helping to enhance the quality of your life. Unfortunately, most of Tesla's technologies were suppressed and many people were not aware of Nikola Tesla's work until the Internet became available to the public. Today people have heard of the Tesla car (electric generated), but many are still not aware of Nikola's influence on technology today or the free energy he discovered.

Tuning to the Central Sun

One of the most exciting pieces of technology to come from Nikola Tesla was a device that could change the molecular structure of a metal such as titanium turning it into a transceiver. The titanium once converted, tunes into the central sun of our galaxy and to the frequency of the earth simultaneously.

Why was this so important to Nikola? Because, Nikola found that the converted metal could use those frequencies from the central sun and earth to bring about balance to frequencies within its immediate surroundings.

Balance Energy

Mobile Phones

A practical example of how this discovery can help you today is when your mobile phone starts ringing which is initiated by microwaves. You then place the phone to your ear, whilst you may be thinking that it is safe, the microwaves are beginning to interfere with your hypothalamus which as I mentioned earlier is responsible for the positive charge within your body.

It is also the master control mechanism for interpreting the wave forms that are coming from your mind which surround your body.

Did you know that car insurance companies are aware of the fact that this interference affects the person's ability to make quick decisions whilst driving and can continue to affect them for at least 15 minutes after the call is finished? This is one of the main reasons that using your phone whilst driving is illegal.

Releasing the energy

Many people also feel a disturbing sensation of heat inside their head when using a mobile phone. This disturbance can be relieved by installing Tesla's metal phone tags. They no longer experience the heating sensation which indicates that the hypothalamus is being supported by the Tesla's phone tags and is not being affected by the mobile phone's frequencies. This is because the treated metal balances the energy of the microwaves emitted by the mobile phone as they pass through the person, without building up or creating the intensity of energy.

Unfortunately, in today's climate we are surrounded by people everywhere using mobile phones that are emitting microwaves with Blue-tooth and Wi-Fi technology. All this distortion hugely affects the balance we all wish to achieve in our lives from the way we think, to the emotions we feel, the way our organs communicate with each other and within our body. Also to our relationships with ourselves and others.

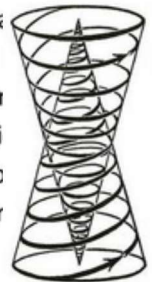

Genetic Blueprints

One of the great challenges that we face today is that we are no longer trained in the art of balancing energies within our lives. A good example of this is your thyroid. The thyroid plays a major role energetically within the body in that it interprets the energy 'signals' from the anterior pituitary where your genetic blueprints are stored.

These genetic blueprints hold the keys and codes to how you look, the way your body restores damaged parts, your digestion and healing that has occurred within the body from the past till now. The thyroid takes the information and directs it throughout the body to keep it flexible and adaptable to each situation. When a person becomes rigid in their ways and thinking refusing to budge and being stubborn this is a tell-tale sign of imbalance within the thyroid gland.

Vortex Energy Patterns

A couple of years ago it was discovered that by using the Tesla's Plates in certain formations, vortex energy patterns could be created to bring balance back to emotional traumas that had been buried for a period of time helping people become conscious of behavioural patterns that no longer serve them.

When unbalanced energy builds up in the body, it increases in intensity in a vortex manner (winding up) and will eventually cause pain in your body. This is also known as pressure. When unbalanced energy is released in a vortex manner (winding down), we experience sensations. This is known as dissolving pressure. When this dissolving pressure is spread too thin we can become dizzy with a feeling that space is rushing around us. Therefore, achieving balance in our lives is a very important thing to achieve to help us manage and cope with the many things that life brings to us.

There is so much to learn on balancing the energy signals within our bodies and the challenges that are presented when they are out of balance. Thankfully you do not have to know all of this information now to be able to experience what the Tesla's technologies can do for you to bring balance into your life on so many levels.

For the above reasons there are a number of different Tesla's plates that have been designed specifically for different situations from your home to the car and office, not forgetting yourself that can support your current lifestyle, without inhibiting you from using modern day technology.

Once again thank you Nikola Tesla.

How to Prepare for a Session in the Tesla Light Chamber

Teslas Light Chamber

While still assisting in emotional pattern release, it's greater focus is on balancing the energy of your cellular structure and heart and mind connection. Many people experience a deep sense of peace whilst in there.

How to prepare for a session,

When using the Tesla's Technology one should endeavour to be free of all stimulants such as alcohol and recreational drugs. Avoid other stimulants at least an hour before such as coffee and large sugar doses which are in a lot of processed foods. Wear comfortable clothing so you can relax easily.

What to expect in a session?

As I cannot state exactly what is going to happen to you during or after a session in the Tesla's Light Chamber, you will have to experience it for yourself. Often people will feel very relaxed whilst the energy systems bring you back into a balanced state, during this process you may feel tingles of discomfort in areas of your body that have been injured in the past. But this will pass.

A number of people have experienced deep meditation opening them up to seeing colours and other images. Another nice benefit is that people have found clarity to issues that they have been seeking answers for.

What to do after a session.

Most times people feel very relaxed, light and in a balanced state, after a while people tend to feel energized. A large majority of people have experienced an energized state for a few days after their session particularly in the mornings.

As the Tesla's Technologies work on clearing emotional blocks you may find yourself thinking about things long forgotten. These memories are prepresented to you for processing so that you can release them. Journaling may be a good thing to do if you decide to have a number of sessions.

In Search Of Harmony

In today's world we are surrounded and bombarded with all types of energy. It is amazing that we withstand the onslaught to our cells from High tension power lines, Wireless transmissions, Microwaves, Phone towers, Electro Magnetic frequencies combined with the earth energies in different places.

After much research and development there is an answer to our polluted EMF atmosphere.

Today Teslas Technologies have a number of different Plates and technologies to counter the effects of each of these energies using its proprietary technology.

1000's of people today now use this technology and feel what it is like to live in an energy clean home or work place without the bombardment of these energies in their lives. Many people who could no longer go to shopping centers because of the high levels of Electro magnetic Stress can now shop again with out being affected and are very grateful.

The House Kit

To assist people cover their house, car, phones, water and bodies, Tesla's products help you to enjoy the atmosphere your body craves for. This is a once only lifetime purchase. It will last you the rest of your life. It is transportable, when you move house you easily take it with you. Save 20% when purchasing this kit.

Or start with the Bare Essential Kit

This kit consists of a Personal Pendant, Two Phone tags and a Pocket Plate.

No medical claims are made or implied. The Tesla's Light Chamber, HeartSender and Tesla's Innovational Technologies is for exploration and experimentation purposes only and does not replace the advise of a health care professional. The System components are not medical devices, but address the subtle energies in the field in a gentle and non invasive way.
